

TENNIS SEASON OPENS WITH THE "OLD GUARD" RIGHT ON THE JOB

The Narberth Tennis Association opened the season last Saturday at the courts at Elmwood and Essex avenues, with all the regulars out in new or freshly washed white ducks and armed with newly-strung rackets.

No, that isn't exactly correct, because there was one distinguished member who appeared in a regular pair of winter trousers and two sweaters. He said he wasn't going to take any chances on a sudden return of winter along about the middle of the afternoon even if young fellows like Ponce Burkhardt did insist on wearing their summer garb, regardless of what the weather might be.

Which reminds us that Ponce was in mid-season form; which, in turn, reminds us that it pays even to neglect the insurance business (adv.) on an occasional afternoon during the early Spring and run up to Wanamaker's Roof and pick up a few pointers from the big stars. Ponce admits the Wanamaker trips, but still insists that all those people who saw him standing at the station the other Sunday morning with a tennis racket in a case and a bag of golf sticks, and intimated that he was sneaking down to Pinehurst or some other such place for a little advance practice—he insists, we are glad to report, that they were all wrong in their suspicions.

Chairman Philler and his members of the Grounds Committee had the courts in fine shape, and the warm, summer-like day made the day ideal for inaugurating the season.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS MEET.

On Monday evening, the 5th, the regular monthly meeting of the Directors of the Y. M. C. A. met for further consideration of the plans for expansion contemplated. The Board has been built up until it is now composed of men who are determined to "make good" with the local Association and give the Borough something of which it may well be proud. The Board is divided into active committees, all doing work that counts and that insures the best of success for the Association for the future.

Following the business meeting, the Ladies' Auxiliary, which held its monthly meeting the same evening, provided a social hour which was enjoyed jointly by the Auxiliary and the Board.

In a case examination held May 7th for the clerks in the Narberth Post Office each clerk passed successfully, all receiving marks of 96 or more. The examination was held in the Y. M. C. A. Building by L. W. Clinton, Acting Chief Clerk of the R. M. S.

Mr. Walter Gray has opened a commendable enterprise at 201 Price avenue, where groceries and many other things are being offered at attractive prices. Mr. Gray expects shortly to enlarge his quarters, especially for the serving of ice cream. Success to Mr. Gray.

There is an all-star cast of remarkable magnitude in the delightful photoplay, "Three Green Eyes," to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. Carlyle Blackwell, June Elvidge, Montagu Love, Johnny Hines, and Evelyn Greeley are the stars, and they are all seen in roles of a particularly congenial nature. "Three Green Eyes" was adapted for the screen from Sardon's "A Scrap of Paper." It is a modern story, telling an unusually likable tale and presented in a particularly appealing manner.

NARBERTH SON SHOWS TRUE GRIT IN FRANCE.

Private John L. Jenkins, of the Marseille Guard, gave an exhibition of true Marine nerve a few nights ago while on duty at the Quartermaster's storage house. Shortly after going on duty at 6 P. M., Private Jenkins detected three Italians pilfering three large cases containing 75,000 cigarettes. With pistol drawn, Jenkins advanced on the thieves demanding their surrender. Two of them fled around the building into the dark and finally escaped after Jenkins had fired on them a number of times. He captured one of the men, whom he found to be armed, and who, when turned over to the French police, proved to be a noted criminal. The French authorities had been in search of for many months. Private Jenkins recovered all the cigarettes and was commended for the act by Base Commander Colonel George McD. Weeks, U. S. A.

Private John L. Jenkins, or "Louis" Jenkins as we know him, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Jenkins, of 103 Dudley avenue, Narberth.

Death of Arthur V. Emmett

It is seldom that we are called upon to record so sad an occurrence as the sudden death of Arthur V. Emmett, with its attendant tragic circumstances. The sympathies of the entire community are deeply stirred by this unforeseen termination of the comparatively slight injury from which he suffered. It seems that Mr. Emmett, during a game of soccer ball, some time ago, was accidentally kicked on the leg, near the knee. A swelling resulted, which became painful, and some weeks ago an operation was performed, which it was hoped would bring quick relief. On the contrary, Mr. Emmett continued to suffer severe pain, and the physicians finally found that the injury had developed symptoms of cancer, necessitating amputation. The operation took place Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock, and, although he came out of the ether, collapse followed, and he passed away at 3.15 on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Emmett was born in Duluth about 27 years ago. He graduated from Chicago University, and later was instructor in physical training in the West Philadelphia Branch of the Y. M. C. A. Four years ago he became Director of Athletics in the Narberth schools, and later devoted a part of his time to physical instruction in the Narberth Y. M. C. A. He is survived by a widow and one child. The funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon, from the home of Principal William T. Melchior, and the interment will take place at Harrisburg.

Mr. Emmett was held in the highest esteem by the School Board and Faculty, and by the Directors and officers of the Narberth Y. M. C. A. By his pupils he was greatly beloved. His heart and soul were in his work, and he was ever very close to all of his classes. As one mother expressed it, "He was not only a Physical Director, but he tried to make men and women for the future." Mr. Emmett will long live in the memories of the hundreds of boys and girls, who were inspired by his splendid enthusiasm and clean, wholesome life, and who will be much better men and women through his words and deeds. Measured by the standard of real attainment and genuine worth, Mr. Emmett was indeed a most successful man. With all those qualities which make for high and enduring character he was richly endowed.

Mr. Melchior paid a most beautiful tribute to him on Wednesday morning, when he announced the sad news to faculty and pupils. With deep emotion he spoke of the details—of the quiet heroism with which he received the news of the necessity of the operation, and, smiling, was taken to the operating room, and how, after regaining consciousness, he smiled while Mr. Mel-

Cub's Weekly Letter

To the Editor of Our Town:

Although it was advertised for weeks in Our Town, was announced daily from the school platform, and circulars were distributed from door to door announcing the event, the talk given by Dr. Teitrick, Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was very sparsely attended. One would infer that parents were indifferent to their children's educational welfare, or perhaps, to look at the matter from another angle, parents have so much confidence in the constituted school authorities that they feel that the children are well taken care of and are satisfied to rest content at that. It has always been the desire of the school authorities that parents keep in close touch with school matters, so that no misunderstanding will arise. The man or woman who never takes the trouble to visit the school or to inquire into a child's progress would be the first to seize an opportunity to make unfavorable criticism.

Dr. Teitrick spoke very interestingly and it is to be deplored that the parents of all the school children in Narberth were not at the meeting. The speaker spent the entire day at the school, visiting class rooms, following closely the methods of teaching in the different grades, and, in fact, inspecting every department of the school. The net result might be summed up in Dr. Teitrick's remarks, which were as nearly as I can remember to the following effect:

In view of the short school hours, there should be instituted a systematized method of studying at home, especially for the High School students. Either that or the school hours should be extended. It is manifestly impossible, according to Dr. Teitrick, for a student to properly understand and master a subject unless more time is given to study, and he recommends one or the other of the above alternatives.

Attention was called to the cramped condition of the rooms and our over-worked teachers. Although the new school building has only been in commission a little less than two years, the growth of the Town has so affected the school that both the old and new buildings are overtaxed. An additional building is badly needed and, obviously, extra teachers. An ideal class, according to the Doctor, consists of thirty to thirty-five pupils, a larger number proving an obstacle to efficient teaching. Several of the local teachers have classes ranging from forty to forty-eight pupils.

The matter of teachers' salaries was also mentioned. The speaker stated that the salaries paid were inadequate in most cases. (This, of course, makes August Evergreen smile.)

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER.

Dr. Teitrick spoke of an evil which seems to have crept into the schools of late years; namely, the cigarette habit. Not that smoking was indulged in in the school rooms or buildings, but rather that the law was being evaded by dealers in tobacco, who were selling the weed in its various forms to school children all over the State. Many boys and some girls are addicted to the habit, and the effect is noted in the pupils' school work.

He also stated that if there were a lack of discipline in the home the teacher was sure to suffer. There are many instances of this kind, and it seems as though there are many parents who are very careless about a child's deportment at home who wonder afterward why a teacher reports the child as being hard to manage and disobedient. The teacher's task is obviously the more difficult, as she has thirty or more children to handle. When a child does not receive the proper training at home, the burden is thrown on the teacher. Someone asked the speaker as to the legality of corporal punishment. In reply the act permitting the use of the rod by a teacher was quoted. Evidently the State gives a teacher just as much authority to punish a child as it does a parent. Many of the youngsters plainly show that they need something more than kind words to keep them in line, and it's well that the law recognizes this fact.

On the subject of physical training the Deputy Superintendent called attention to the large number of young men rejected by the Army examiners for physical reasons. He thought that physical training was quite as important as mental, and urged that the local school bend every effort in the direction of improving the bodies as well as the minds of its charges. He praised our gymnasium, but suggested certain additions in the way of apparatus. He also recommended additional equipment for the laboratory.

On the subject of manual training, he is very emphatic in stating that a department of this kind should be attached to every school in the State.

According to the Doctor's idea, Narberth has an excellent school in all departments. There isn't a great deal that he suggests in the way of improving it, excepting such as outlined herein above. He finds that we have an extraordinarily fine corps of teachers, that the Board of Directors is giving the school a very careful and thorough business administration. To my mind, what stands out most prominently in his address is his recommendation with regard to longer school hours or more home study for the students. Next to that, it seems to me, is the Doctor's recognition of the fact that our school facilities are much too small for this growing town, and the urgent need of a new school building.

One point I failed to mention above, and that was Dr. Teitrick's exhortation that the playground adjoining the school, which is not the property of the Borough, be acquired at the earliest possible moment. A school nowadays without a good-sized playground attached to it is years behind the times. The property must be acquired now if ever. It can be purchased at a very slight advance over the price paid for it by Mr. Shand years ago. It would be the next thing to criminal neglect to lose the chance. If the school doesn't buy the property, it will probably be used for residential purposes in the course of a year or two.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

MISS JANE CAMPBELL, NOTED CLUB WOMAN, TO ADDRESS WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB MAY 13TH, AT 3 P. M.

The Women's Community Club justly considers itself indeed fortunate to have again secured the services of this talented speaker. To those who recently listened to Miss Campbell's paper, "Then and Now," abounding with wit and humor, will look forward to her presentation of "The Immorality of Mother Goose," on Tuesday next, with no small degree of pleasure.

MISS MARGARET McGUIRE, FAMOUS EDUCATOR, ADDRESSES WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB ON AMERICANIZATION.

This was the main topic for discussion at the last meeting of the Women's Community Club, and was very ably treated by Miss McGuire, principal of the McCall School, of Philadelphia. To all who had the privilege of listening to this interesting speaker it was made very clear that Americanization was a broader subject and embraced far more than the word normally implies, namely, the Americanizing of the foreigner. This phase of the subject seemed to fade into obscurity as Miss McGuire made her splendid plea for mothers to make every effort not only to maintain, but to continue to raise the standards of the American home, and the training of our boys and girls in a manner that would automatically produce the proper spirit of Americanization.

Six young girls, products of the splendid institution that Miss McGuire represents, accompanied her and presented in a most capable manner Alfred Noyce's poem entitled, "The Avenue of the Allies," "I Am an American," and "The Recessional," by Rudyard Kipling.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the last meeting of the Women's Community Club, Tuesday, April 29th, the annual election of officers took place. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. C. P. Fowler; Vice President, Mrs. C. W. Young; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. Batchelor; Recording Secretary, Mrs. N. Anderson; Treasurer, Mrs. J. Harris.

DEATH OF ARTHUR V. EMMETT.

chior tried to divert him by reading the baseball score to him. He spoke of

Mr. Emmett's sunny temperament, and how, when the principal was distressed by some problem of discipline, Mr. Emmett would quote his favorite lines from Longfellow's poem:

"Be still, sad heart, and cease repining;
Behind the clouds is the sun still shining;

Thy fate is the common fate of all,
Into each life some rain must fall,
Some days must be dark and dreary."

To us of an older generation, it is inexpressibly sad to witness the end of a splendid young life, so full of promise of a future rich in all that life is worth living for. Yet we rejoice in what he did accomplish, and we realize that when the door closed on his earthly career, another opened that revealed to him the ineffable glories of the eternal life, where there is no pain nor suffering, no sin nor death.

SCHOOL NOTES.

the school endeavors to teach all pupils respect of property rights of others and shall do everything within their power to co-operate with citizens in the punishing of malicious trespassing.

The High School Mothers' Meeting, held on Wednesday, proved one of the most helpful round table conferences on record in our schools. There were wide-awake discussions on live problems. The meeting was opened with remarks by Mr. McCarter, President of the Board, following which Mr. Melchior lead in discussions.

C. P. COOK

Narberth 302W NARBERTH, PA.

We will be glad to book order for Jeddco Coal during the month of April at prices prevailing in Philadelphia and vicinity.

Most of you know that this coal is the best that comes to market, and to those of you who don't, we have no hesitancy in proclaiming the fact that if better coal exists anywhere in the wide earth it has not as yet been discovered.

Our thought is that the Coal Business will be slow this Spring and Summer, to be followed by a stampede in the Fall. Take our advice and order early, and don't forget to order from us, where you will get good coal and lots of appreciation furnished f. o. b. with the goods.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Registrar.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
